President's Letter...Audrey Borja

Seasons come and seasons go, and now we are entering the holiday season. As I express sentiments, I think the Fall has been beautiful with the colors of the leaves and the healthy fresh air. I trust that everyone has had an embracing Fall. Such blessings surround us for sure. The holiday season will bring goodwill, family gatherings and social activities that will warm your hearts. Just don't forget the meaning of Christmas and enjoy your churches, the music and the up-lifting that it brings. We often say, the spirit of Christmas should be with us all year.

So, back to my message of how the Battlefield Boogie Club is doing. -We are fine and our variety of venues has proven to be successful with our members showing up and with the opportunity to recruit new members. Each of our venues have a different vibe. The Moose Lodge still provides the biggest dance floor and is appealing to many of our members. The Pub is a nice change for us, but some have indicated that it is too loud. The bar crowd continues to be present during our dances and can get a little loud, but otherwise, the opportunity to dance at The Pub has been appreciated. The Highmark Brewery is the most significant change for the BBC. We get a descent turn out as we show off to folks at the bar and others that drop in. Being at a public location has proven good to attract new and inquisitive folks. We keep plugging along. The Christmas party will be held at the Highmark Brewery on December 16. We will decorate the tables and have a pot luck dinner. This should draw out most of our members. Fun for all.

Along with other shag clubs in Virginia and as led by Joe Webb, a shagger in Chesapeake, the BBC is participating in a special initiative to support Junior shaggers. We will collect the "Guide to N. Myrtle Beach" information and will prepare, print and distribute a booklet for folks going to SOS. It will give the ins and outs about N. Myrtle Beach: where to go dine and other activities around the area. Each shag club will have an ad in the publication and will get lots of exposure. BBC has submitted an ad and the-requested monetary donation.

There is a dance " scheduled at the Fredericksburg Elk's Lodge on November 22. The featured band will be showcasing their music for the dancing enthusiasts. The tickets are available and can be purchased through our BBC if you are interested.

We will have club elections by the time this Newsletter serves its period of time. All BBC membes are encouraged to take part in the management of our BBC. We will announce and celebrate the new officers at the December 2025 Christmas party. So, throw your hat in the ring for an Officer position or for a committee assignment. We need you! I encourage new folks to step up and as far as the President position, if eligibles step up I will welcome a new and fresh leader to take the club to new heights . And, if that happens, I will remain on the board in some form, so not to worry, business as usual.

As I close, please embrace your strength and dance when you can.

Dancing is good medicine!
