President's Letter... by Audrey Borja

As I write this, I want to let everyone know that we are so happy that you all are in our BBC. Our membership is growing with many new members and a steady on going membership. Yea! We are excited about the strength and fun we are all having. Our DJs have been playing awesome music that gets us going. Thank you guys! Also, congratulations to WillieT (Bill Frostick) for being inducted into the Association of Carolina Beach Music... Way to go... This is a great new credential. We are all proud of you! We are so fortunate to have such good DJ's playing for the BBC. Thanks to Craig Jennings, our tenured beach music chairperson that schedules our hometown DJ's and even on occasion gets visiting beach music DJ's to add a different flavor for our club nights. How fun is that! We are all pumped with all of the great music and dancing that we have been doing! Our BBC club night has been awesome with lots of folks coming out. Our Bugle Call each week (thank you Dennis) that goes out to members reminds us of what fun is waiting for us at Shannon's with good food, friends, our DJ for the night and all the dancing. What a good weekly boost for all of us! I am proud to be part of such a spirited group!

To spread this spirit of dance and friendships, in April a bunch of us went to Myrtle Beach for SOS. The pace of our time there was phenomenal. Going to workshops, shopping, watching the parade down Main Street (Don and I were actually in the parade), frequenting the local restaurants, and dancing the night away kept us all stepping. We had a little kick back time, but not much. We saw friends from all over the east coast and even Texas and California. This reunion and the fun packed activities brought us all back to share our refreshed appreciation for having each other and our lively life style. Thank you all for being part of that. It's good medicine! If you didn't get to go to SOS this time, plan to go in the fall. Another big party awaits you~

We all had to say good bye to Josh our bartender recently as he goes on to work toward a bright future. We had a special night of recognition for him on April 25 when we had cake, a 50/50, baby gifts, cards, and lots of good wishes. Josh is a special guy. He worked hard for us and definitely took care of BBC on Thursday nights. He worked alone on our club night and served our food and beverage needs as if he had a team behind him. We will miss Josh, but for those of us that knew him he became a friend and we will stay in touch. He and his wife will have their new addition in October and we will let everyone know when the little one arrives. We plan to get a bunch of us together soon to go to his new work place, the Capital Ale House and make some noise ☺ We want them to know that Josh has a following!

Ok, as we get into the warmer months, there are lots of events coming up. The Band of Oz is coming to town on May 11 and that is sure to be a fun night. Check out the "What's Up" section of the Newsletter for other events to put on your calendars. If you need information on any of the events, just let us know. Of course we will miss Darlene Weaver, our Vice President for a couple of months because she, her husband, members Joyce and Johnny are traveling across country in an appreciation of America RV "relaxing" trip. Darlene couldn't take all of us with her, but I bet she sends us teasing notes in her travels to make us all wish that we could be with her. Have a fun, safe trip Darlene! We will miss you and will be anxious for your homecoming. You take such good care of us and always have such great ideas for our club nights. We will try to keep things stimulated while you are gone. A hard task~

As we go into the summer months, may we all stay healthy, embrace our strengths and enjoy each day. We are so fortunate to have each other. Take time to reflect and count your blessings. Let me know if there is anything that you need or want to check out. I would like to give my personal thanks to all club members that help and give of their time to support the BBC. We could not do it without you! What a team!

Let's dance~

Let the good times roll!

Josh...

Your cake says it all.

Josh, some bartenders are just cool...
Some have a great smile...
Some have a welcome personality...
Some make a great drink...
Some treat their customers with care...
And then there is you, YOU HAD IT ALL!
Thanks, from all your BBC friends.

SOS SPRING SAFARI 2013

Joey and Bernie Fanini, The Yankee Shaggers,

Everything is calm as we pass Center City Philly, then Delaware—next Maryland, and finally through Virginia. The transformation starts to take place a few miles out of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. It has been over six hours since we left Philly.

“Geez, Bern, SOS,” I say, “Sure has been a while; it’ll be good to see everyone.”

“A little while!” she says. “How about four years? They say it’s changed. We probably won’t know anyone.”

“Yeah,” I answered, “And I don’t think I’ll be able to do it any more. I probably won’t remember any steps. I’ll probably embarrass you.”

“Nah,” she says, “You’ll just be a typical uncoordinated Yankee.”

We laugh.

Several hours later we cross the South Carolina state line. I feel it. I need to adjust the radio. Is it 94.9 or 94.6. Aahhh, there it is. Who is that singing? I know, its Rockin Louie and the Mamma Jammers; belting out Club Savoy.

Ohh boy—it’s eerie—the change...it’s starting. My limbs begin to loosen. “Do I detect a little twitch?”

And then the sign: North Myrtle Beach six miles.

“It won’t be long now, Bern.”

“Easy Joey, easy now,” she says.

“Listen, Bern. Let’s not go to the condo yet,” I say, “Let’s head straight for Ducks. Joan and Kevin are probably already there.”

“No, Joey, first we go to the condo, check it out, unpack, and then I need to change, I mean, just look at my hair!”

“But...but...come on, Bern—just for a minute—to see who’s there.”

It’s agony. The radio blares: rocket sixty-nine...rocket six-ty nine.

Bern turns off the radio. I breathe deeply and succumb, “Okay, I give in, to the condo we go.”

We pass The Pirate’s Cove, Fat Harold’s, and then Duck’s. “Look Bern, there’s Dale and Jim.” I blow the horn and wave. Several people wave back. I recognize them but don’t remember their names. There are people all over the place. “Ooooh, Bern, SOS, at last: it don’t get no better than this.”

And then it happened; it took me by surprise. I knew Bernie felt this too, by the look in her eyes. Sweeter than wine—softer than the....

I swerved the car into Ducks parking lot. We grabbed our dance bags, jumped out of the car, and rushed into Ducks.

“Ya see, Bern, Butch is playing. Hey look, that’s AC and Cathy...over there..., standing next to Ned—and the Pope’s. There’s Dahlia, talking to Sandy and Betty. Yo, Charlie, how ya doin’—whoa—Jackie looks hot.”

We threw off our street shoes—on with the loafers; and the transformation was complete. We danced, and laughed, and hugged old friends, and shagged, and danced galore. Yeah man, Me and my baby, dancin’ like crazy, shaggin’ the night away.
