President's Letter... Audrey Borja

Wow, where did the summer go? I think we were all busy, traveling and hopefully dancing a lot. I hope that you and your families had good quality time together and made many memories. And how about our BBC anniversary party on August 24. It was another Blast as we were joined by our many old and new members came out and our NVSC friends traveled 95 to join us. Thanks guys! You always add to our fun evening! Please read the article in this newsletter about the party.

What high spirits with good food, good music and awesome friendships! As we head in the Fall of the year we have lots to look forward to as we plan our many dance events. The next big event is SOS in Myrtle Beach, S.C. I know that many of our members are planning to go for a few days and for even the entire time. This is a good time to see old friends, dance 'till dawn, and just be off the record for a few days.

Welcome to all of our new members... and to the old members for hanging in with us. We are going to have a membership drive soon with a goal of having 100 members before year's end. Can I count on you to help us? There will be some incentives, so stay tuned~ Ok, enjoy the colors of the leaves as we go into a beautiful season. Count your blessings, embrace your strengths and be good to your neighbors~

Don't forget dancing is good medicine so let the good times roll!

Going to SOS is like going on spring break with grey hair. ...of course I am speaking for myself, LOL. When you go down, don't forget the Virginia free pour on Friday, Sept. 19 at Ducks. All of our dancing friends from our Virginia for Lovers clubs will be there. Thanks to Craig Jennings for planning and coordinating this and to Ducks for providing the food. As of this writing, I believe all Virginia shag clubs will be participating. I want to thank our BBC officers and board members for supporting our clubs in more ways than we all know. They serve as our club delegations and promote our club's interest. The things behind the scene are often overlooked and yet we all know that it takes a lot of work to organize and run a club. Thanks to our DJ's for providing our consistently good music each Thursday. You guys R O C K !

10th Anniversary

Shall We Battle or Waltz?

By Sherri Wildoner

When making preparations for the Battlefield Boogie Club 10th Anniversary party, it seemed that a decade of keeping the Carolina shag dance alive and well in Virginia warranted a little something extra be included in the celebration. The name of the club, location of our weekly meeting place, plus the many battlefields found throughout Virginia and surrounding states lent inspiration. How about a few people in period costume greet guests as they arrived? Location, location, location – the plantation style country club provided the perfect backdrop. Continuing with the theme, why not have both a Union and a Confederate soldier present? After all, it wasn't uncommon for families to align themselves with one cause or another, often pitting brother against brother on the battlefield. Wouldn't it be a nice surprise to have our Civil War era representatives escort guests to their tables? As part of our opening ceremonies, our two combatants from the past might unite in the presentation of the Colors. Now what's a party without a Belle? Conflict became a bit more civilized through dance, with our Belle of the Ball and soldiers performing a waltz, where each gentleman could vie for the lady's attention. All ended well, with drawn swords raised in salute in mutual respect and both Union and Confederate soldiers escorting our Southern Belle from the dance floor. The night continued with the Salute to the Troops, Blessings, Dinner, open dancing, and a silent auction, with the fabulous Glen & Janice Gardner rounding out the evening with their high energy swing dancing.

Costumes were rented through Stages in Moundsville, WV. Providing a few measurements and the costumes were tailored for our event. Battlefield Boogie Club members voted to donate a portion of our 50/50 raffle ticket sales to The Salvation Army Shoe Fund. To date we have donated $300.00. Thanks Darlene Weaver for conducting the 50/50 raffles! The Shoe Fund gives vouchers to parents of children in our area, identified by school nurses and counselors, in need of new shoes. In 2013 over 1,700 pairs of shoes were bought with these vouchers.

Special Thanks to all our BBC members who donated items to our first Silent Auction held at our Cannon Ball Blast on August 23rd. Your generosity and the hard work of our members, JoAnne Locklair and Joyce Jessee, helped to make the auction a great success!!
